

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: February 5, 1996

SUBJECT: HB 2222 - SB 2445

This bill, if enacted, will exempt from being a lobbyist a person or licensed attorney who is representing a client before an executive branch official for the purpose of determining the client's legal rights and obligations.

Under present law, such a person or attorney would be considered a lobbyist and subject to the gift restrictions of the law but would be exempt from registering as a lobbyist.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be minimal.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "James A. Davenport". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director